2026 | SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

MOLIERE'S TARTUFFE Molière's most masterful and most frequently performed play, skillfully translated into English by Richard Wilbur. The story takes place in the home of the wealthy Orgon, where TARTUFFE – a fraud and a pious imposter – has insinuated himself. He succeeds magnificently in winning the respect and devotion of the head of the house and then tries to marry his daughter, seduce his wife, and scrounge the deed to the property. Further complications arise courtesy of a visiting emissary from King Louis XIV.

DANCING AT LUGHNASA is the extraordinary story of five unmarried sisters eking out their lives in a small village in Ireland in 1936. We meet them at the time of the festival of Lughnasa, which celebrates the pagan god of the harvest with drunken revelry and dancing. Their spare existence is interrupted by brief, colorful bursts of music from the radio, their only link to the romance and hope of the world at large. The action of the play is told through the memory of the illegitimate son of one of the sisters as he remembers the five women who raised him: his mother and four maiden aunts. He is only seven in 1936, the year his elderly uncle, a priest, returns after serving for twenty-five years as a missionary in a Ugandan leper colony. For the young boy, two other disturbances occur that summer. The sisters acquire their first radio, whose music transforms them from correct Catholic women to shrieking, stomping banshees in their own kitchen. And he meets his father for the first time.

THE SHARK IS BROKEN FADE IN: The open ocean, 1974. Filming is delayed... again. The lead actors – theatre veteran Robert Shaw and young Hollywood hotshots Richard Dreyfuss and Roy Scheider – are crammed into a too-small boat, entirely at the mercy of foul weather and a faulty mechanical co-star. Alcohol flows, egos collide, and tempers flare on a chaotic voyage that just might lead to cinematic magic... if it doesn't sink them all.

“LIVE theatre in Windsor is alive and well!”

2026 | SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

RIDE THE CYCLONE In this hilarious and outlandish story, the lives of six teenagers from a Canadian chamber choir are cut short in a freak accident aboard a roller coaster. When they awake in limbo, a mechanical fortune teller invites each to tell a story to win a prize like no other – the chance to return to life. This popular musical is a funny, moving look at what makes a life well-lived! This production will also be the Windsor premiere of this Canadian musical.

KORDA SUMMER SESSIONS will offer a mix of musical performances, productions, cabaret nights, special events, and the annual Extension-Korda Summer Camp. The season of experiences will be produced and managed by Korda Founder Tracey B. Atin. Over the years this innovative summer program has provided countless opportunities for local artists to work on creating LIVE theatrical experiences, and for youth artists to work alongside mentors and peers to learn the ins and outs of operating, programming and performing in a true community theatre setting.

ALL MY SONS Joe Keller and Steve Deever, partners in a machine shop during World War II, turned out defective airplane parts, causing the deaths of many men. Deever was sent to prison while Keller escaped punishment and went back to business, making himself very wealthy in the ensuing years. A love affair between Keller's son, Chris, and Ann Deever, Steve's daughter; the bitterness of George Deever, who returns from the war to find his father in prison and his father's partner free; and the reaction of Chris Keller to his father's guilt escalate toward a climax of electrifying intensity.

EVIL DEAD: THE MUSICAL takes the elements of the cult classic films, The Evil Dead, Evil Dead 2, and Army of Darkness and combines them for one of the craziest, funniest, and bloodiest theatrical experiences of all time. Five college students go to an abandoned cabin in the woods and accidentally unleash an evil force that turns them all into demons. It's all up to Ash (a housewares employee, turned demon-killing hero), and his trusty chainsaw to save the day.

THE WIZARD OF ORCS - KORDA'S ANNUAL HOLIDAY PANTO will be brought to life by Windsor Improv Theatre's Eric and Becca Miinch. It's a thrilling, hilarious, and unforgettable mash-up of L. Frank Baum's The Wizard of Oz and J.R.R. Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings, the story will be a fresh take on two epic and familiar fantasy tales. Expect silliness for the kids, naughty jokes for the grown-ups, bad drag, great music, magic, mayhem, golden rings, ruby slippers, and loads of audience participation for everyone in a delightful all-ages adventure!
